Dear Lisa Huang,

We are writing to you regarding our partner, WebMaremma.

We confirm that WebMaremma is an official affiliate partner of Tiqets International BV. In this capacity, WebMaremma promotes the products and services we offer on our platform and redirects users to our website. They merely place a link to the Tiqets website on their own website. When clicking such a link, the end-customer is immediately redirected to the Tiqets website and check out subsequently takes place at Tiqets, not at the affiliate partner. Therefore, all ticket sales are completed directly on our platform, and WebMaremma is not involved in the transaction, pricing, or fulfillment of tickets.

As a platform, Tiqets works with a broad network of supply partners, ticket providers, and tour operators. We operate under commercial agreements that authorize us to offer tickets and experiences to end customers via our own channels and through distribution partners, including affiliates such as WebMaremma. Due to the confidential nature of these agreements, we are not able to share contract-level documentation.

We hope to have informed you sufficiently.

Best regards,
